A: There is a new V5 beta version of Prepar3d, version 5 beta 1.0: Download Prepar3D from If you want to use the "blackbox"-commodity, you have to "unzip" the downloaded zip (with 7zip, but it works with other apps too) and then extract with the 6-digit-number of the last file. (You can extract an incompatible file and delete it after the prep3d has been run. The licence file with validity date on both sides is in the zip file). Remember to run the executable. It will need a new licence file with the 6-digit-number. If there is no licence file, then you have to run "Prep3dV4 Crack (no serial)" in the console, resulting in a "loading done" screen. Then there will be a licence screen in the console, there you have to enter the 6-digit-number, hit "OK" and wait for it to be validated. There is a 6-digit-number on the licence file. When you are done, the blackbox-commodity should be in the plugins. If you want to use the v4 without the blackbox, just run: "Prep3dV4" /* s_log1pf.c -- float version of s_log1p.c. * Conversion to float by Ian Lance Taylor, Cygnus Support, ian@cygnus.com. / / *

Jim Himes James (Jim) Andres Himes Many Democrats want John Bolton's testimony, but Pelosi stays mum SEC's Clayton demurs on firing of Manhattan US attorney he would replace Democrats face tough questions with Bolton MORE (D-Conn.) unloaded on President Trump on Friday for creating a "campaign of fear" during a press conference in the wake of the caravan of migrants making their way to the U.S. Himes accused the president of using "alternative facts" and said he is using the threat of immigrants to seek votes. "He is creating a campaign of fear about something that could not possibly happen," Himes said. ADVERTISEMENT "If you look at countries in which children stay, literally children and babies stay, in camps, there are protections in place. We have laws that make sure that those children are fed and housed. There are things that are done to protect the children that are in other countries." Himes added that he was not "a fan of Donald Trump's rhetoric, but that's not what he's doing." "We all know the facts, there is no threat," he said. "We're not talking about terrorists coming in, this is trying to send a message to people." The president speaks to the press in the White House Rose Garden on Friday. The administration has taken an aggressive stance against the migrant caravan, and last week deployed thousands of troops to the border. The administration has also sought to force Mexico to stop the group of migrants from reaching the U.S. Trump said on Friday that people in the caravan won't be allowed to enter the country unless they declare a border emergency. "All of these people coming in, they'll be turned back, or probably go back to their countries," Trump said during a press conference.
