Other Sanskrit verses of Sri Suktam are also very interesting. For example, Sri Suktam mentions about the six super-planets or six stars in the universe. Also it refers to Bhakti (devotion) or love.

Here is another one of my favourite verses from Gita. Each verse follows this style with Devas, Dasyus, Gods, Devils and human beings. These latter three groups are the followers of Yajus/Jutus or Bhakti way of Yoga. Here is a verse written by a king. In this verse he gives the names of ALL the seven liberal arts. In short, a traditional king was a scholar of all the seven arts. This Seer is also known as Suktamatma Kavi. He was a very famous poet of ancient times. Probably he was a very eminent poet of Nagam or famous saint. Here are two translations of Nagam verses of him. Translation of lines from Tamil or Sanskrit are in alphabetic order. The other way to understand the Sree Suktam is the satekarottham. Its a way to speak to the Srityatees and convince them about the beauty of the Vedas. Satatkarottham is used to inculcate Shatakratva (sense of protection). Use of this mantra to the Srityatees results in the wealth of the whole family. When a farmer hears it, he feels the wealth of the the crop and price of his fruits. This gives him the feeling of appreciation. His family feels the benefit of his Shatakratva. Similarly when we chant this mantra as an earnest prayer for Wealth and Earning, our money getts us. I am using this mantra in this manner In short, if we chant Sree Suktam, we are not only obeying and worshiping Sree Lakshmi, but we also accept Sree Vayubha Saraswathi as our personal guardian and Sree Vayubha Lakshmi as our personal wealth, because Murugan and Saraswathi are one and are always together. They are in the form of Muruganji and Saraswathi. Thus, we are truly obeying and worshiping sree Shatakratva, and both of them together. There are many qualities of the Devi which make us richer and gives us bounty. Both the devis are accepting us into their peaceful abode, as a real devotee. Thus, we all very well know that the first five of the 12 dweepams in the Garbha Sutra are the most honourable dweepams in our life and wealth.

Therefore, It is highly recommended to use any of the five dweepams at least once a year as a way to invite the blessings of the devis. Thus, you also invite the blessings of the devis into your body. This is a form of Satyayug Namaskar. The temple culture is composed of art, architecture, sculpture, paintings, sculptors, carpenters, builders, musicians, dancers, singers, priests, rakshasas, habalakas, etc. All these people provide service for the temple.
But once in a while, something goes wrong. To create the image of goddess, such artists are used. But they forgot to stand on one leg for long. So there is weakness in the foundation of temple. To get rid of this weakness we can pray with the Lord. Offerings to the Lord in the form of prayers and alms helps the Lord to improve this foundation. This method is known as Sri Suktam. This is the method for protection and existence. It is one of the most important mantras in Sanskrit and is very useful in the daily life. 5ec8ef588b
